A NEW DEPARTURE IN FICTION.

Published Quarterly, in long demy, price 2s. 6d.

THE LONG QUARTERLY.

NUMBER ONE READY THIS DAY.

Science has its Quarterlies—redolent of research, and disseminating discussion. Politics of all shades has its own favourite tri-monthly organ. The Church; the Army and Navy; The Law; Music and Art; Sport; Medicine; and the Antiquaries—All possess their Quarterlies; the only branch unrepresented is Fiction. It is proposed to fill up this gap by establishing an entirely new publication upon new lines, and to issue it quarterly.

An original romance, written specially for this publication, and always from the pen of an author of eminence, will be published in each number of THE LONG QUARTERLY. Each story appearing in the publication will occupy one number, and though identity may sometimes be veiled under a nom-de-plume, every one will be by a writer of Talent.

It is easy to say that such a publication is not wanted—that there is no room for it. There is room for everything that amuses in these grave times, and it remains to be seen how far this new form of fiction will coincide with popular taste.

No. 1 is Now Ready, and contains a complete Novel, entitled,

UNTIL MY LORD'S RETURN:

A ROMANCE OF A RIVER TOWN.

By Admiral HINTON.

THE LONG QUARTERLY is tastefully printed on tinted paper in an entirely new shape, which lends itself to easy handling and comfortable reading while travelling.

THE LONG QUARTERLY can be had at any Bookseller's or Bookstall in town or country, price Half-a-crown.
